

Storytelling Workshop Series 2019!

Starting in February, 2019, Storytellers of New Mexico is excited to offer a series of storytelling workshops to the community. The program is ideally suited to those desiring to improve their personal storytelling skills and who also want to learn about the broader world of storytelling. Workshops will be given by tellers in the STNM community with combined national and international experience of over 200 years! Presenter bios: <https://www.storytellersofnewmexico.com/find-a-storyteller.html>.

Plus Exciting Added Benefits!

New to STNM? Sign up for two or more workshops and receive a free one-year membership in Storytellers of New Mexico and enjoy its many benefits, including access to a free mentoring program, organizational 501 (c) 3 grant opportunities, participation in STNM events, use of sound system, notification of all nearby storytelling events, and discounts, including a discounted membership in the National Storytelling Network.

Mentoring for New 2018-2019 STNM Members: Depending on interest levels, STNM will offer several free individual and/or small group mentoring sessions to new members in 2019 (including anyone who became a member in 2018). A number of professional members have already volunteered their services. Please reach out if you're new to the organization and are interested in being paired with a mentor. Send your inquiry to: info@storytellersofnewmexico.com.

We Want to Hear Your Voice! (Sign up for the first workshop)

By signing up for the first workshop, you will also be given a voice in the subsequent third and fourth workshops. Although we have our own ideas of what those might look like, we want to hear about what you need for your own storytelling journey.
