Notice of Release from incarceration. You have the right to be informed when the Defendant is released from incarceration, along with the terms and conditions of release. You are entitled to be notified of the release of the Defendant to a work release program or any other type of post-arrest release of the Defendant. If the Defendant is incarcerated in the Adams County Law Enforcement Center, you may register for said notification by going to www.vinelink.com or by calling (866) 959-8463. If the Defendant is incarcerated in the Indiana Department of Corrections, you may register for said notification by going to <http://indianasavin.in.gov> or by calling SAVIN at (866) 891-0330.

If you wish to exercise the following rights, please place an "x" on the line to the left of the description of each right you choose to exercise. If you do not exercise any of the following rights, please still fill-in the above information and return this form to my office so that your other rights can be preserved.

_____ 1. Notice of Bond Hearing. You are entitled to be notified of the scheduling of a bond hearing.

_____ 2. Notice of Case Resolution. If the Defendant is convicted, you have the right to be informed of the criminal offense for which the defendant was convicted and the sentence imposed. If the Defendant is acquitted or if the charges are dismissed against the defendant, you are entitled to notification of that fact.

_____ 3. Notice of Post-Conviction Proceedings. If the Defendant is convicted and seeks appellate review or otherwise attacks the conviction, you have the right to be informed of the status of the case and of the decision of the Court.

_____ 4. Notice of Probation Violation Proceedings. You have the right to be notified of any probation revocation proceeding in which the court is asked to terminate the probation of the Defendant and the disposition thereof.

_____ 5. Notice of Modification of Terms of Probation. If the terms of the Defendant's probation which will substantially affect the Defendant's contact with you or your safety are modified or if the modification affects your restitution or the Defendant's confinement status, you have the right to be notified of any said probation modification proceeding.

_____ 6. Notice of Sentencing Procedures. If the Defendant is convicted, you are entitled to be notified of the function of the presentence investigation report (PSI), the name and telephone number of the probation department preparing the PSI, the right to make a victim impact statement, the Defendant's right to review the PSI, your right to review to PSI (with some limitations), your right to be heard at sentencing and notice of the time, place and date of sentencing.

_____ 7. Right to Confer with Prosecutor. Depending on the type of crime, you may have the right to confer with a member of the prosecutor's office after the Defendant has been charged, before the commencement of the trial, and prior to any disposition of the case. This right does not include the authority to direct the prosecution of the criminal case.
