

Bouck, Ruth

Ruth A. Bouck, 81, of Rossman Road, Kingston, went to be with the Lord on Friday, August 22, 2003. Ruth was born on January 22, 1922 in Detroit. She graduated from high school in Detroit and on July 1, 1944, the former Ruth Eckl married Roy "Bill" Bouck. He preceded her in death on January 24, 1990. She was a resident of the City of Detroit until 1968, when she and her husband moved to South Lyon until retiring to Kingston. She was a homemaker, an avid Bible reader, and was known around the Wal-Mart and restaurant circuit as the "God bless you lady" because of the familiar greeting. Ruth attended the Kingston Wesleyan Church. She is survived by one daughter, Ms. Aline Heckroth; one granddaughter, Ms. Shana Heckroth; two aunts, Mrs. Helen Wilson and Mrs. Dorothy Terry; good friend and sister-in-law, Mrs. Ruth (Bouck) McComb; several nieces, nephews and cousins. She was preceded in death by her only brother, Warren John Eckl, on June 23, 2003. The funeral service was conducted at the Kingston Wesleyan Church on Monday with Pastor Kenneth Sandefur officiating. Burial was at Kingston Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Kingston Wesleyan Church. Funeral arrangements were made by the Collon Funeral Home, Caro.
