As an experienced California criminal defense attorney, Antonio J. Bestard recognized long ago the unique and difficult nature of sex crime defense, especially with cases involving children. Simply being charged with a California sex crime attaches a stigma that can be lifelong and disastrous to your career, finances and family life. That's why Antonio J. Bestard has developed a particular expertise in these cases, with the chief objective being a successful result to avoid the long-term consequences associated with sex crimes. In addition, he has been particularly successful in recognizing false and retaliatory accusations and at exploiting deficiencies in the prosecution's case through the thorough investigation of ALL evidence and police procedures.

Sex crimes, such as sexual assault, spousal rape, or solicitation, are singularly unique in the personal and emotional effects these charges can have on you and your family. Antonio J. Bestard will work diligently to present you in a favorable light both in trial and in the media and will protect your legal rights at all times in pursuit of the best possible result (either through trial or negotiation) for you and your family.

Simply being charged with a California sex crime does NOT mean that you are guilty. You have the right to skilled counsel on your side to face these serious charges that can take away your freedom. Antonio J. Bestard is CA board-certified CRIMINAL LAW SPECIALIST who has obtained SUCCESSFUL RESULTS for clients throughout California.
