

The Youth Museum
America's Pathways to Independence

Liberty Tree Meeting Broadside Article

The colonists objected to British taxes because they had no representation in Parliament. Many times, they would gather at Liberty Tree Meetings to discuss their opposition to these "taxations without representation." Imagine you are a colonist attending one of those meetings. Write an article to be posted in the town square or printed in the local Broadside describing the Liberty Tree Meeting.

