History of Lisa's

In the heart of Sicily, our family's passion for authentic Italian cooking was born. Generations before us worked the fertile land, growing fresh ingredients, and mastering age-old recipes passed down through the years. The love for food, community, and tradition was the foundation of everything we did.

We brought that same passion and craftsmanship to Brooklyn, where we opened our very first pizzeria. With our Sicilian roots guiding us, we would soon move to Westwood where we would introduce the people of Westwood to the bold flavors and handmade pizzas that had been enjoyed in our family.

Today, we are proud to carry on the legacy of our family, serving delicious, authentic pizza and tasty dishes with the same dedication and love that began in Sicily. As a family-owned business that has been established in Westwood since 1960 we continue to share our story one slice at a time.

Thank you for being a part of it.
