

NEWSDAY

February 26, 2017

ANDREW M. COHEN

Attorney

Andrew M. Cohen of Merrick has received the 2017 Susan Weshler Memorial Award from The Hagedorn Little Village School, Jack Joel Center for Special Children, in Seaford for demonstrating “commitment, compassion and leadership in humanitarian endeavors,” the school said. Cohen is the principal of the Law Offices of Andrew M. Cohen and focuses on trusts and estates with an emphasis on planning for families with a disabled child. He also is a charter member of the Academy of Special Needs Planners, a member of Easter Seals New York’s Long Island board of directors, and is an author and frequent lecturer on legal planning for families that include individuals with special needs.