Course Quail Brook OLD (69.2 /118)
Weather Sunny, Hot 90's

It was quite the busy day at Quail Brook. The main event was World Series Qualifier #4 but it was also the final day of qualifiers for Partners and there was even a last minute match (NOT Billy Bylina style). There was a three way tie for first place at Net 64. Once again Andrew Keller comes in first on a WS Qualifying day along with Commish Frank Thiry and Jim Petronchak. Andrew has already qualified at Spooky so this was just a win but Frank and Jim now join the other qualifiers. Andrew tied the back with Net 31 but had 15 Net Birdies and 5 Net Eagles. Jim tied the back, tied Coco with 3 Birdies and tied Coco again with 12 on GP3's. Frankie shot a sizzling Net 29 on the front and tied with 5 others with 1 Sandy. Congratulations to Frank and Jim for qualifying for World Series. More to come from the commissioner on that.

In the final day of qualifiers for Partners the Bobbies once again flexed their partner muscle and shot a Net 58 to finish first over all. Price and Rutigliano had a rocky start that they couldn't overcome and finished with a Net 65 and did not qualify for the tournament. Congrats to the Bobbies and all the other qualifiers. In a last minute decision (there was no challenge at the course) Jeffries and Minutello played there match. Mike won it 4 & 3. Congrats Mike.

Notable - for those who are curious, the record for Net Birdies is 20 held by John Rutigliano and the record for Net Eagles is 7 held by the Johnnies, Perry and Rutigliano. The record for low net at Quail Brook on the front is 24 held by Larry Thiry.
