

2024 Sport of a Lifetime Annual Luncheon

AASSTC, Inc. is a CTA, incorporated in Washington DC and serves the senior community of DC and MD. Since 2003, we honor our older tennis players with an annual luncheon where we induct octogenarians into the AASSTC Hall of FAME.

This year however we gave special recognition to our nonagenarians. They were presented with a citation from Maryland Governor Wes Moore and a congratulatory letter from the White House.

This year's luncheon was held at the Kentland Community Center, in Landover MD.

Also in attendance were 8 of our former inductees.
