 Gospel: Mark 15: 1-39. “Identifying with the suffering Christ”

Holy Week 2021 will again be a stark and different reality, but as always it will again remind us to reconnect with and identify with the suffering of the Savior in order to reinforce our conviction that resurrection always follows death, that victory always crowns our suffering and failure.

Jesus’ death and resurrection speak loudly of love and God’s closeness to us. Through Jesus’ suffering, God chooses to come close to all who suffer illness, grief, loss, depression, and addiction. God embraces all who choose to return love for evil; who forgive past grievances; who reach out to the rejected, who are not afraid to become “first responders” in the face of suffering and death. In our suffering God’s grace can transform us so that we can love others as Jesus did.

It is the suffering Christ who enables us to do this. So, we join Him In mind and spirit, enter Jerusalem with Him, proclaiming Jesus Christ Is Lord! We come to be with Him on Holy Thursday, learn again the meaning of Christian service through His washing of His disciples’ feet, recognize Him in the breaking of the Bread, and proclaim Jesus Christ Is Lord! We come to be with Him on Good Friday, watch with Him in the Garden, share His pain and shame on Calvary, watch Him die - and proclaim Jesus Christ Is Lord! And we will come to be with Him at the Easter Vigil or on Easter Sunday, see again the mystery of the Resurrection with the eyes of faith, and rise ourselves with Him to new holiness of life and love as we proclaim Jesus Christ Is Lord!
