

Vance Miller III
(1-goal outdoor, 3-goals Indoor)

Junior

Major: Political Science

UNT Intercollegiate Polo Team

Runner-up 2022 USPA National

Intercollegiate Championship

Vance C. Miller III is a 2-time National Interscholastic Polo Champion (2016 & 2019) and currently attending the University of North Texas as a Political Science Major, Vance grew up playing polo with his brother Vaughn Miller Jr at their home club in Oak Point, Texas where they learned to play polo from their father, Vaughn Miller Sr. This winter Vance is playing at Sarasota Polo Club in Florida for the Ten Oaks team in the 6-goal League and the Tito's team in the 8-goal League, Vance won All-star in the Central Region Intercollegiate championship in 2020, Vance and his brother Vaughn Miller Jr and teammate John Dencker were National runners-up in the 2022 DI National Intercollegiate Championship. Vance is also a 5-time winner of the Central Region USPA Interscholastic Championship. In addition to polo Vance played football in high school as Quarterback throwing for over 1800 yards and 21 touchdowns. Vance has won 8 USPA NYTS All-Star awards and been named twice to the USPA NYTS Central Zone All-Star team.

Outside polo:

- Sigma Chi Fraternity member, UNT
- Honor Guard member, Dallas Symphony Orchestra League
- USPA College Scholarship Award Winner
- VCM Development, Project Leasing

Vance also works part time in commercial real estate as an Associate in Project leasing for his family's firm, VCM Development. Vance is a native Dallasite and 4th generation of a well-known real estate family. Vance's father is Vaughn Miller, an accomplished commercial real estate developer and polo coach in the north Texas area, Vance's grandfather (and namesake) was Texas real estate legend, Vance C. Miller and his great-grandfather was Texas real estate icon, Henry S. Miller Jr. Vance would like to follow in their footsteps working in commercial real estate and grow his family's polo program at their home club in Oak Point, Texas.