

Wayne ARC, one of 55 chapters of NYSARC, Inc., is a parent-based organization that provides supports and services to developmentally disabled individuals of all ages and their families. Started by the parents of 6 children with developmental disabilities in 1964, we have evolved to be the largest provider of such services in Wayne County. Wayne ARC serves over 1400 individuals and families.

In June 2015, following a lengthy, intense review process, we received a three year CQL Accreditation. This accreditation validates our commitment to excellence in all aspects of agency operations with a primary focus on providing the people we service with the highest quality programs and services in a manner that meets each person's individual needs and desires.

Our Residential Services Program operates 13 homes and 10 supportive apartments throughout Wayne County providing housing with varying levels of support and supervision that allows individuals to live as independently as possible.

Adult Rehabilitation Services offers day programs focused on helping individuals maximize their potential in all areas of daily living. Services are offered during weekday hours at program sites in Newark and Macedon, as well as in the community. Our focus is on individualized programming and community inclusion. We provide volunteers to several entities including Crackerbox Palace, the Wayne County Humane Society, and Meals on Wheels. With the help and guidance of Wayne Cooperative Extension's Master Gardener program we also run a greenhouse. Other opportunities include a Sensory Program, an Arts Program, a Socialization through Recreation Program, a Health and Wellness Program and a Retirement Program. Our Day Hab groups are run from two locations; 150 Van Buren Street in Newark and 975 Victor Road in Macedon.
