8	Mare Mule	14	Red Sorrel, White belly, Star	Pumpkin is a sweet going easy natured gal. She is a pleasure to have around. She is a straight gaited mule but does have what I consider a little shuffle that is a very pleasant gait. Pumpkin has 0 issue in the stall. No cribbing, weaving, or acting up. A clean mule in the barn. She will ride off alone or in the group. Pumpkin is easy caught in the field. You do not have to chase her all over Gods creation to get her caught. I just shake the feed bucket and running she comes. Pumpkin is not skittish of her ears. She stands calmly to tack and untack.You can pick her feet up with ease. Pumpkin has had lots of trail miles and overnight and week long rides. She is what I consider broke for any level rider with basic mulemanship sense. She is a lady that I let my daughters ride and you can bank on the fact I put them on NOTHING that I feel would even cause me a glimmer of worry. Check Pumpkin out if you are looking for a solid no nonsense trail mule.

54	Horse	11	Blue roan	Cash is a blue roan miniature horse that has been used for lead line and also is broke to a cart. A really nice little horse.
55	Horse	13	Black and White	Popcorn is a 13 year old mare pony. Standing 52 inches. Popcorn is BROKE BROKE BROKE but NOT FOR YOU 5 year old that has never been on a horse or pony. Popcorn has been shown in every event that they offer at the county and state shows. She knows the barrel and pole pattern . We pasture rope on her and she will drag anything you want to dally that she can pull. Ride her double or single. Saddle or bareback doesn't matter to Popcorn . She is traffic safe dog safe machinery safe. Popcorn does have fire to her. If you ask her to go, she is going to go. She stops when asked but for that reason I wouldn't put my novice child on Popcorn. Easy keeper. Her vice is she is a pony and can be difficult to catch in the field at times. All in all if you want a show pony for some speed classes or want a cow pony for your young cowboy or cowgirl and they know how to ride Popcorn is THE REAL DEAL!!!!
