

WILL LOFTIS

Will has performed on GLEE, Dancing With the Stars, The Primetime Emmys, America's Got Talent, Jimmy Kimmel Live, The VMA's with Florence and the Machine, "No Strings Attached" Shake it Up, Austin and Ally, Bunheads, The View, Good Morning America and recently, played "Lugnut" in Disney's newest original movie, Teen Beach Movie and Teen Beach 2 which will be released in summer 2015. Most recently Will has performed on Dancing With the Stars with Ariana Grande and also danced with Taylor Swift on the 2014 MTV Video Music Awards.

Will also shot an international commercial for Microsoft choreographed by Jamal Sims and Christopher Scott, a promo commercial for the Academy Awards with Ellen Degeneres, the "Rock the Vote" campaign choreographed by Travis Wall and "Camp Fred," a Nickelodeon film, choreographed by Tony Testa. In addition, Will has worked closely with Kenny Ortega, Marguerite Derricks and The LXD. Furthermore, Will has performed in the following companies: Sonya Tayeh's "Tayeh Dance," Tessandra Chavez's "Unity LA," Justin Giles' "SoulEscape" and Stacey Tookey's "Still Motion".

Besides his extensive work as a performer, Will has had the opportunity to work as the assistant choreographer for several projects/programs, such as: Miley Cyrus Gypsy Heart Tour, The European Music Awards, Kylie Minogue Aphrodite Tour, Florence and The Machine, The X Factor USA, Dancing With the Stars, The Voice, American Idol, Los Angeles Ballet and Cincinnati Ballet. He has also been an assistant choreographer on SYTYCD for Sonya Tayeh, Mandy Moore, Ray Leeper, Michael Rooney, Dee Caspary and Christopher Scott. As a choreographer, Will was named one of the top 15 finalists for the Capezio A.C.E. Award Competition and presented his work in New York City.