

Not Cut Off

“Surely there is a future, and your hope will not be cut off”
(Proverbs 23:18).

God’s Word contains literally thousands of Bible promises for you. Today’s verse is one of those! Life is really a bunch of external circumstances that God uses to show how His power can impact your life.

I wish I could say I always believe God uses my failures as much as He uses my moments of success, but sometimes when life throws a curve ball in my direction, I find myself challenged to believe it.

According to today’s passage, whatever you are going through, your hope will NOT be cut off. I am not saying this, God is. Are you struggling to believe Him concerning something? Are your circumstances telling you something different? Today’s message is one of truth, your hope will NOT be cut off.

The truth does not change. His word carries over 5467 promises and each one is for you. He hasn’t made one promise that He doesn’t plan to bring to completion. All of His promises are eternal and have no beginning or end because they are “now.”

They carry eternal purposes that always come to pass. He is unchangeably committed to you because Jesus Christ paid the price. You can totally depend Him to fulfill words. This includes times when things in life goes array, when you make a mistake or when disappointment fills your soul. As humans, we are far from perfect and tend to let life dictate how we respond to things.

This includes those times when you stray from holding on to the truth. Life will try to cripple you if you let it. All your steps are directed by God, and this includes your missteps and stumbles. God will take your failures, sins and mistakes and use them to mold you into His image.

Whatever is happening in your life God is able to display His power and grace in your life. God is going to use situations in your life to glorify His name if you will only trust Him.
