- If anybody has dues credits, let Tom know
- Newsletter will be issued just after the May meeting. Articles are accepted up to the May meeting.
- Reminder, please send candidates for the 3rd Annual Volunteer of the Year award to Ken Normandy. May 8th is the deadline.
- The calendar on the website, the colors don't show up as expected based on the plan we have purchased. Scott put an explanation below the calendar on how to use the calendar.
- Website domain and hosting is up for renewal – 5 years for $400 and needs to be paid.
- Email from Clint – The defibrillation battery is beeping and needs to be replaced. Brian Boehm to replace the battery.
- Brian raised the fire department inspection
- Correspondence from the County of Kenosha that properties identified with an onsite waste treatment system. There will be a 5-year maintenance program to confirm system servicing and compliance starting Jan 1, 2019. We have been identified as one of those properties. The recommendation is maintenance is performed on the septic system every 3 years and it is coming up due in April. The last time it was serviced was April of 2016. It is mandatory to be pumped every 3 years.

Old Business:

- NRA membership through the website, we have one new and one renewal this month.
 - Remember, clicking on the eagle, you get a discount on membership and the club gets a small gratuity.
 - NRA extended the $600 life membership to this Friday
- NRA Grant application
 - Glass block and replace the doors was raised as a possible idea
 - Scott to get a bid on the doors, If the doors frames were replaced, they would need to open outwards.
 - We received a bid for the glass block - $1500
 - Scott working on the grant applications
- The security camera guy will come tomorrow, hopefully it will be completed by 6 PM
- No keyboard is needed for the security system, its run by cell phone

New Business:

- Bullseye Clinic. The proposed class would be two days between 8 and 4 PM either last this summer or early fall. The class would be limited to 14 people. More details to come in future meetings.
