

Monday

Adventurers: Mr. Palmgren

Role Play as a famous adventurer seeking clues and mystical items while battling evil villains to save the world! Gain and use knowledge of mythology, history, and geography to outwit opponents, solve ancient puzzles, avoid dangerous traps and acquire fantastic powers! The fate of the universe is in your hands!

Where: Room 156

Current Events: Mr. Terenzi

Come discuss the week's headlines! As a former journalist myself, we will look to find the journalistic angles any news coverage. We will peruse the NY Times and other online news outlets to guide our discussions. An educated electorate is the key to the future and that's what our aim will be!

Where: Room S-01

Messy Science: Ms. Kleinwaks

Come join other scientists exploring the messy world of science. We will run experiments in chemistry, physics, biology and earth science learning more about the world around us and "how stuff works."

Where: Room S-21

Girl Talk: Ms. Navas

Who run the world? G I R L S.

A group dedicated for girls supporting girls. As a group, we will discuss everyday topics (families, relationships, our bodies, aspirations), while also empowering and inspiring each other.

Where: Room 166

Wednesday

MMS Fitness: Mr. Mantes

With constantly varied, high intensity functional movements, MMS Fitness will coach students of all shapes and sizes to improve their physical well-being to prepare them for 5Ks and OCRs (Obstacle Course Races).

Where: Room 279

Nail Art Club: Mrs. Johnson

Do you like to make a statement with your nails? Join the Nail Art Club and use your creativity to let your individual style shine through. Each week we'll explore a new nail art technique, and you'll leave with a signature look that's all your own.

Where: Room 142

Spectrum Club: Ms. Vorona

Students can meet to discuss issues relevant to and in support of students and their families who self-identify as straight, gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, or are questioning these issues. And as always, we have snacks!

Where: Room 287

Chess Club: Ms. Laing

Come learn about strategy and practice your skills. Students of all levels are welcome, from novice to expert! Challenge Ms. Laing or strike up a game with each other. Grandmasters welcome!

Where: Room 281

Thursday

Stay Late and Create: Ms. Reisman

If you love art and being creative, trying new materials, and meeting new people, then Stay Late and Create is the perfect fit! Bring a smock and a snack, and meet for an hour of art, craft, design, and fun. There is a one-time $5.00 supply fee for the 6-week session. This club is limited to 30 slots! Sign up early to reserve your spot!

Where: Room 296

Real Talk Club/SOS: Mr. Stoudamire

Learn How to navigate this world. Empowering Students to be effective leaders through conversations, decision-making, and modeling behavior. S.O.S, aka: Save Our Students, is the acronym that will be our guiding light. The 8 keys of excellence will also be a staple for our group talks. R.O.A.R- Respect Others and Act Responsibly.

Where: Room 285B

MMS Trailblazers: Mr. Goodstone

This club is perfect for anyone who likes being active and outdoors. The trailblazing academy compliments MMS Fitness but focuses on endurance running, balance and body awareness rather than strength training and obstacles. Students will engage in a variety of running, balance and stretching activities designed to improve one's ability to run in nature, improve their overall stamina and run an outdoor 5k race.

Where: Room 25