

GRACE L. CARR

1900-1979

Grace L. Carr, age 78 of Pigeon Rd., Bad Axe passed away Wednesday evening, January 3 at Scheurer Hospital, Pigeon, following long illness.

She was born July 29, 1900 in Oliver Township and lived in the area all of her life. On December 19, 1923, Grace L. Clunis and Floyd S. Carr were united in marriage in Elkton.

Mrs. Carr was a member of the Elkton United Methodist Church, where she participated as pianist and organist for church services and programs, and so of the Elkton Senior Citizens, where she was an active member.

She is survived by her husband, Floyd; two sons, Keith of Elkton and Courtney of Pontiac; and two grandchildren, Mark of Elkton and Bethany of Millington.

One brother, Wager Clunis, preceded her in death October 18, 1978.

Funeral services were held Saturday, January 6 at 2 p.m. at the Champagne General Chapel, Elkton. The Rev. Dr. Francis Wilson and the Rev. Joel Hurley, pastor of the Elkton United Methodist Church officiated with burial in Walfax Cemetery.