Our Privacy Promise

We are extremely committed to respecting your privacy and appreciating your need for protection of your personal information you share with us. This privacy promise is to inform you what personal information we may collect from you either online or in store, and how we may use this information, and your ability to review and correct the information.

Your email is never shared with other organizations for commercial purposes. We have no affiliation with any ad server companies. We use your personal information for internal purposes only. We may from time to time inform you of new services, confirm or remind you of your appointment or simply providing you with amazing Boss Beauty Bar updates.

While we always strive to protect any information you may give to us online, it can never be 100% secure, so please do this at your own risk. Once your information is received, we always do our very best to protect it in our system.

We may use your information from time to time, for new purposes not disclosed in this policy, but we will always notify you and you may have the opportunity to opt out.

Feedback is always welcome. If you have any you'd like to share with us regarding our privacy promise, you may write to us at info@bossbeautybar.ca
