

El Santuario de los Pobladores — Dedicated to the Mysteries of the Rosary

Our promise and dedication towards completing the Santuario in honor of Our Lady of Guadalupe and the Mysteries of the Rosary perseveres and each day brings us closer to its completion. The plaques will have a significant placement in the Santuario courtyard as you enter. This phase will begin in the spring of 2024.

This is a picture of the completed mission statue of St. Augustine that has been moved to its permanent home at the Sanuario along with the Holy Family statue. The process for the next mission statue will begin as entire donations are complete for each figure. We have volunteers actively seeking contributions for the remaining missions of Ortiz, San Rafael, Las Mesitas, San Miguel, and San Antonio. In addition to the mission statues surrounding the Santuario and the statue of Our Lady Of Guadalupe and St. Juan Diego at the entrance, walkways will lead visitors to various areas of interest. The placement of new trees will also be available to contributors who are interested in dedicating a tree in memory of a family member similar to what now exists on the New Veterans Boulevard entering the Village of Conejos. We want to acknowledge the generous contributions we have received to keep the project moving along and for the time and effort of Brian Knight & Al Abeyta Jr. for their craftsmanship with the display of memorial plaques. Your continued support and prayers are greatly appreciated. Tours will be available. Please call the church in advance, if possible. Thank You!

MASS THEME BIBLICAL COMMENTARY

Theme: God Has Reconciled Us to Himself through Christ
 A French king is said to have stated: "The crown of France is worth a Mass a week." In reality, he cared little about religion, but since all of France was Catholic, as king he had to go to church on Sunday. We could liken this to a modern teenager thinking: "The keys to the family car for my date are worth that Mass on Sunday." There are various reasons why the "faithful" observe religious obligations. Some do so out of fear. One never knows what will happen on the other side of the grave, so they want to play safe. Others calculate like the Pharisees of Jesus' time; they are "righteous" people, diligently observing the laws of their religion, and they expect God to give them salvation in return. Such scrupulous observers of the legal requirements of Christianity forget that salvation cannot be bought with good works. In the matter of leading a Christian life, it is the reason why one does so that counts. Love and gratitude should be the principal motivations, not calculation or fear, and certainly not commercial considerations! Good works should be the result of sanctification. We should do them not to buy salvation, but as a sign of appreciation and gratitude for what God has done on our behalf.

FIRST READING
Jos 5:9a, 10-12[Food for the Israelites]
 In the promised land, the Hebrews celebrated the Passover. Their motivation was not to get something. They offered their lambs as a sign of gratitude to Almighty God. Our Passover Lamb is Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. Note that the setting of our weekly Passover is the Eucharistic Prayer, a prayer of thanksgiving and praise, and these sentiments should be your motivation for taking part in it. "We offer you [God] in thanksgiving this holy and living sacrifice.... Through him [Jesus Christ], and with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, for ever and ever" (Eucharistic Prayer III).

SECOND READING
2 Cor 5:17-21[Reconciliation]
 The message of this reading is that God, in Christ, has reconciled us to himself. Apply this to yourself. Whether you are "the prodigal son" or "the righteous son" of today's Gospel, you need reconciliation, which is not bought with good works, but given freely! (See Theme.)
