

X-12 Keeps On Keeping Hillclimbing Alive in Utah

Words by Ron Dillon, Photos by Henk Zuurbier Photography & Moe Lund

On May 1-2, 2026, Utah's only hillclimb, known as X-12, fired up for the 12th time, near Plymouth, Utah, off of I-15 near the Idaho/Utah border. The event returned to the Rockwell Pro Hillclimb Series this year and was the first round of 2026. That brought out a record number of spectators and campers, eager to kick off a new year of hillclimbing on the biggest hill in the sport, and people showed up from as far away as Canada, North Dakota, Washington, Wisconsin and California. The world's most famous hillclimb, The Widowmaker, is gone but not forgotten, and most riders have come to realize that X-12 is as close as they are going to get to riding the Original Point of the Mountain Beast that began in 1964 and wrapped up in 1988.

Enthusiasm is always high in Utah, and partners and supporters were: Rockwell Time, Spike Motorsports, Box Elder County Tourism Works, R&R Machine Service, Frank May Ski-Doo, S&S Cycle Brokers, Cache Valley Honda/Yamaha, Rupp's Trucking, Les Schwab Tires in Brigham City, Roche Financial, Ballz Clothing, Christian Motorcyclist Association, (CMA) and Gearheads.

Five different hills were used over the weekend, with 432 entries doing battle. Hundreds of stock, trophy bikes ran on their own 1,025-foot hill on Saturday, and as usual, not a single rider made it over, with the best, Caysen Weaver hitting a height of 739 feet, far short of the top, although his mark was nearly 100 feet higher than last year's high point.

There were a lot of strong rides throughout the weekend, especially by riders over 40. Utah's Craig Spencer won the Open Pro and 40+ Masters Pro classes and took sixth in the 700 Pro. Another rider over 40, Wyoming's Bronson Foianini, won the 700 Pro class, grabbed second in the 40+ Pro Master and took seventh in the Open Pro. Hillclimbing is a great place for talented riders to land after their knees hurt too much for MX or desert racing and California's George Sauer competed years ago until he turned 94! Our vote for the best rides of the weekend to a young rider go to Utah's Max Geisler who won the ferociously competitive 450 Pro class, grabbed second in the 700, sixth in the Open Pro, and took second in the side-by-side X-Climb.

Without question, the 2026 X-12 Hillclimb was the smoothest and best run ever. Derek Vockel and his friends and family assumed command of the pro hill and classes and they did a terrific job. Meanwhile Ryan Scadden, (and daughter Adeline) Matt Cherrington, and Widowmaker Moe Lund steered the other four hills, with strong support from the Dirty Dawg Hillclimbers led by Spanky Flint and Jughead Purser, and tied together by announcer Don Flint and lead scorer Amber Speth. It takes a village to put on a hillclimb of this size, with everyone pulling on the same end of the rope and this was clearly the case this year.

The event could also not have happened without the support of landowners Jacob and James Knight and the Knight Family, as well as the Box Elder County Commissioners, the Fielding EMS staff, and Box Elder County Highway Department. Utah's ONLY hillclimb will return on April 30 and May 1, 2027. For more info: www.x12events.com or call Ron at (208) 573-4255.

Utah's Adam Alexander letting his bike "eat" on the 1,700-foot pro hill, finished 20th in the Open Pro class
