Hopping Hill Headlines

Date: Friday 14th December 2018

Newsletter 13 18/19

Well done to everyone on your amazing performances this week, great to see so many children show confidence to appear on stage in front of friends and family

We had a lovely Christmas dinner today, please visit our twitter page for more pictures and video

Well done to the Year 5 & 6 Footballers who played at Millway today. After a nailbiting game that went on to extra time and penalties, Hopping Hill won to become the top Primary football team in the town. Riley Woodward, our only Year 5 player, was exceptional in goal Well Done Team, on to the County Finals January 24th when they will represent Northampton Town in the County Schools Final.

Party Day

On Tuesday the 18th children are welcome to come in party clothes, all children going to the panto are welcome to bring along a snack and drink to enjoy during the show. Please do not give your child family sized sharing bags of crisps, sweets or popcorn Please sign up to bring party food for your child's class.

Year 5 & 6 Christmas Gathering

Parents/Carers of children in Years 5 & 6 are invited to a Christmas Gathering on Monday 17th December at 2.00pm. We will be serving refreshments, singing carols and selling plants and wrapping paper designed by the children. We hope you can join us.
