Barbara Tapp February 27 Demonstration

Barbara Tapp is a renowned Australian watercolor artist. She will give a demonstration on Monday, February 27, at our general meeting starting at 6:30pm. Barbara moved to San Francisco in 1980 after touring 18 months across Europe and the US. Before that, Barbara worked as an illustrator for architects and real estate offices. Her illustrations appeared in such publications as the Karen Brown Travel Guide and Sunset Magazine.

Barbara loved plein air and soon her studio became the great outdoors where she began focusing on the Sacramento and Salinas Valley area. She began participating in major plein air events across the country and soon began accumulating honors and awards. Among her recent awards are:

She is a Signature Member of LPAPA, California Art Club, and California Watercolor Association. She is a Juried Member of Watercolor West and a member of the San Diego Watercolor Society and the American Impressionist Society. She currently is on the faculty of the Streamline Plein Air Convention. Recently, her work has appeared in Plein Air Magazine and International Artist.

Among Barbara's recent awards are:

- People's Choice Award, LPAPA Annual Waterworks Exhibition
- 2nd Place, Laguna Plein Air Salon, 2022
- Best in Show, LPAPA Plein Air Invitational, 2020
- Honorable Mention, Watercolor Plein Air Salon, 2022
- Honorable Mention, Mendocino Paint Out, 2021

White Elephant Sale: Donations Wanted

The Laguna Woods Art Association is happy to announce its WHITE ELEPHANT SALE coming up in March. Members are invited to clean out their art closets and bring all unneeded, gently used or new art supplies to the Art Studio for our largest bi-annual fundraiser.

The next sale date is March 25, 2023. Monies from the sale of donated supplies will be awarded to approved organizations. So, start your searches and participate in this gratifying opportunity. You can reach out to Bonnie Fox at bonfox16@gmail.com with any questions about the sale or get information at the Art Studio.

Art Exhibit at the Laguna Woods Community Center

Village residents and their friends and guests are cordially invited to visit the Laguna Woods Community Center to enjoy the newly installed 2023 Laguna Woods Art Association exhibit. In this very special, highly regarded and much-anticipated show, art association members who manifest their creative visions in the Clubhouse 4 art studio share the fruits of their talents, passions and joys with the community.

Whether created in acrylic, mixed media, oil, watercolor or other medium, or whether the works are of spectacular nature, a place in time, a calming still life, a bold statement, a fascinating curiosity, or pensive individuals, each is sure to inspire, engage, captivate, charm, amuse, provoke or affect in some way.

More than 150 pieces of artwork are displayed along all first- and third-floor hallways and alcoves of the Community Center. Ask concierge desk staff for the exhibition flyer featuring additional details about the show, including how to purchase art directly from the artists.

A placard accompanies each artwork featuring the artist's name and contact number, as well as the artwork title, medium, dimensions and price (unless marked not for sale/NFS).

Remember to vote for your favorite art work, using the voting cards and the ballot box near the concierge desk.

This group exhibition kicks off the 23rd year of this century with recent artwork by Master of Fine Arts students from Laguna College of Art+Design. The new year is a time to reflect on how we got here and make choices on where we are headed. Like the 23 pairs of chromosomes referenced in the title, our future is shaped, but not determined by the past. The arts are a constantly evolving cultural inheritance.
