SEASON 31

AUGUST 20-22 & 26-28, 2021

The action takes place in a suburban home during an office party, but we only see the shenanigans taking place in the host's bathroom, as party guests escape for who-knows-what hilarious hijinks. It is, after all, a handy place for gossip, hanky panky, ripped zippers, and rehearsing party entertainers; It's where we learn of the wild and crazy things going on at the party. The authors have contrived this play so that we feel that, if we had gone to this party we, too, might have spent most of our time hiding out in the bathroom!

Christmas, 1977, is only three weeks away, and the ladies of the Charitable Sisterhood are preparing for Second Trinity Church's annual Christmas Spectacular ... but they're having trouble staying focused on their preparations because there's a criminal on the loose - someone has stolen the baby Jesus figure from his place in Second Trinity's nativity scene. Sisterhood leader Bea Littleton is certain that the culprit is her longtime rival, Lucille Orton, from First Salvation (a place of extremely strict beliefs just up the road). Bea and the other sisterhood members decide that they need help getting to the bottom of things, and they call in honorary member and private investigator Janet Murchison to delve more deeply into things and see if she can determine who the perpetrator is. By show time, Janet is starting to think she knows exactly who is guilty of what ... but the truth can't be revealed until the end of the Spectacular. As a result, we watch from both onstage and backstage, as the sisterhood performs sacred songs and satirical skits (after all, where else does Santa meet the Wise Men at the manger?). The fun doesn't let up until the hilarious revelation at the show's climax, which leaves the audience and the sisterhood filled with the very best spirit of the Christmas season.

OVER 30 YEARS OF ENTERTAINING FRIENDS & FAMILY!

MARCH 25-27 & MARCH 31 - APRIL 2, 2022

In this fast-paced comedy, the inhabitants of one of the smallest trailer parks in Texas - four doublewides and a shed - realize the nearby town of Tugaloo is determined to annex them. And it's not as if they don't already have enough to deal with. Joveeta Crumpler has had it, having been passed over again for a promotion at work. She has an ongoing battle to keep her mother, Caprice, out of the local bar and worries that her brother is taking his participation in a womanless beauty pageant way too seriously. Joveeta's best friend, Georgia Dean Rudd, is struggling to keep her diner and finances afloat, but she just can't curb her impulse to take in every stray cat, possum, and armadillo that wanders by. Then there's Big Ethel Satterwhite, who's continually frustrated by her clients at Stairway To Heaven Retirement Village as well as her husband, who shows far more affection for his Barca Lounger than he does for Big Ethel. And all the residents are plagued by Haywood Sloggett, the curmudgeon from across the road, who loathes their "trailer-trash" ways. But these friends, enemies, and neighbors realize they'll have to work together to defeat the encroaching annexation if they have a snowball's chance to survive being swallowed up by "the big guys." The rollicking mayhem escalates as the residents attempt to secede from Texas, discover a traitor in their midst, and turn the tables in a surprising and side-splitting finale. So grab your Stetson and come on over to Doublewide, Texas, where life is double the fun and double the joy.

JUNE 10-12 & 16-18, 2022

If there's any skeletons in the closet, I'll find them!" states Angie, who then opens a closet and has a skeleton literally fly in her face. This is one of the many surprises that faces the undercover police woman who just took on a job as a "domestic engineer," hired by Dr. Hugh Bernard to "find out what's going on." Five elderly spinsters live in the same house and all, apparently, hate each other. And what a group. There's Evelyn, who keeps acting out death scenes for Fiona, who's writing some sort of novel. Then there's Catherine, who keeps alluding to her "garden." And Beryl, who carries a pistol and has really hired Angie, unbeknownst to the doctor. And finally, there's Dinah, a senior citizen Hell's Angel. What keeps these women together? And what dark secret are they all hiding? And why do they all keep dying? Find out in this comedy chiller, where you're not sure who or what to believe, who is really who. And finally, what really happened to Jinx, the cat? This show will keep your audience on its toes until the final curtain. Nothing is for certain, nothing is taken for granted, but it's all a "Dead Giveaway."
