

Ewbank, Margaret M.

Margaret M. Ewbank, 84, of Auburn and formerly of Caseville, died early Monday morning, December 22, 2003, at the Bay Regional Medical Center after a brief illness. Margaret was born November 7, 1919 in Cheboygan, the daughter of the late Berner and Mary (Green) Seaman, and had resided in this area for four years. She was one of six children, served in the U.S. Marine Corps during World War II, and was a member of St. Joseph Catholic Church, Auburn. In 1946 she married Ralph A. Ewbank, and he survives her. Other survivors include: one nephew, Alan Ewbank, of Saginaw, one niece; Lael Thelander and her husband, Charles, of Wisconsin; many other nieces, nephews, brothers, sisters, brother and sister in-laws, card partners, swim buddies, neighbors and friends. The funeral liturgy will be celebrated at 10 a.m. on Friday, December 26, 2003, at St. Joseph Catholic Church, Auburn. The Rev. Fr. Thomas E. Sutton will officiate. Graveside committal services will be at 2 p.m. on Friday at St. Roch Cemetery, Caseville. Visitation will be from 5 to 8 p.m. on Thursday at the Auburn Chapel of the Cunningham-Taylor Funeral Homes, Inc. For those planning an expression of sympathy, envelopes for St. Joe's Parish and the Y.W.C.A., Bay City, will be available at the funeral home.
