SAMPSON COUNTY EXPOSITION CENTER
PUBLIC NOTICE #11

DATE: 17 November 2020

Following the directives of the State of North Carolina and the NC Department of Health and Human Services (NCDHHS), Sampson County is extending the cancellation of events scheduled to be held at the Sampson County Exposition Center through Monday, January 4, 2021.

While the ongoing effects of the COVID 19 pandemic and responses to it are constantly evolving and Sampson County's commitment is to protect the health, safety and welfare of its citizens.

Sampson County has and will continue to take actions, that while they may be inconvenient, are in the best interest of its citizens, its employees, and based upon guidance and direction from federal, state and local health officials.

Sampson County Officials will continue to closely monitor the situation and will update and advise the clients of the Sampson County Exposition Center, as well as the general public as additional information becomes available, and that work in the best interest of its citizens.

While the Sampson County Exposition Center remains closed for all events, the Exposition Center's Offices are open daily from 8 am to 5 pm. Visitors are not allowed inside the building without an appointment. The public may contact Exposition Center staff by calling 910-592-6451, or by email at info@sampsonexpocenter.com. Please note: Office hours may change depending on impacts related to the COVID-19 Pandemic.

We thank you for your continued patience and understanding.
