Yellow Owls February News

Dear Parents,

Is it just me, or is time flying by. January was here, and now it's gone. Before we know it, it will be Spring! I know, I'm getting ahead of myself now... just wishful thinking :) All of the sudden it seems like our babies are growing fast and reaching new milestones every week. We have a group of "quints" that have recently started eating cereal, puffs and baby food!

Hip Hip Hooray for Mason, Charlotte, Nola, Leo and Kira. Come lunchtime, our room is a very busy place. It doesn't happen everyday, but there have been a few times when we are all eating at the same time... it's like feeding time at the Zoo!!

The two oldest in our room are doing Big things!! Ayden, who will be 1 on February 10th is now standing on his own! :) He climbs, moves furniture, and... he makes the signal for TOUCHDOWN! He's a great Packer Fan. Presley came back from Christmas break with a new accomplishment...Crawling!! And... just in the past week, she has been trying to pull herself up to stand.

New Additions... welcome Levi and family. We've only had him a few short weeks, but he fits right in. He's so smiley, he loves to talk, and he has a great head of hair.... So Cute!!

Ms. Carrie & Ms. Kristina :)
