Semjase

18. In the end we are human beings, albeit from different worlds and from different conscious and spiritual stages, yet fundamentally similar forms of life, which have to go the way of their evolution.

Semjase

19. So this does not rule out that I also make mistakes, which I ask your friends and acquaintances to understand.

Semjase

20. My way of life is in all things of the physical and vibrational higher developed than yours, but we are not to the degree of that perfection which would exclude mistakes.

Semjase

21. This should always be borne in mind.

Semjase

22. We really are not those beings of perfection that are so readily exploited by pseudo-contactors for religious gain, for these alleged beings of perfection are either deceitful and power-maintaining creatures who want to bring the earth-men under their thumb, which actually occurs in a few cases, or they are quite simply pseudo-beings that exist only in the imagination of the pseudo-contactors.

Semjase

23. If my way of life is as imperfect as yours, it must be understood that I am also subject to mistakes.

Semjase

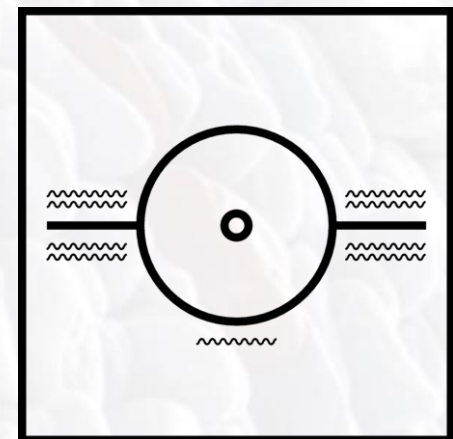

24. But if I subvert such things, then I call them open and stand by them, for it would make no sense or benefit if I concealed or denied them.

Semjase

25. This would only be to my own detriment.

• If the Plejaren make a mistake, they will admit to it and take responsibility since there is no point in hiding or making excuses for it as should be the case with all human beings.

• Truth: The effective concordance of the knowledge with the logic, that which is the Creation-Power and the Absolutum of all logicalness. (Dodecalogue Page 262)

The Truth Symbol

- Plejaren have the ability to penetrate into the thoughts of others.

(Note: not all Plejaren have this ability!)

'Billy' Eduard Albert Meier

... why don't you search for that in my thoughts?

Semjase

23. If I want to research your thoughts, then I do so only when it seems important to me.

Semjase

24. It is not the manner or the desire of us simply to penetrate into the thoughts of others when this is really not important.

- Plejaren have the ability to read other people's thoughts, but they only do so when this is important to them.

Semjase

25. Moreover, we all have no right to penetrate into the personal secrets of others.

Semjase

26. If one penetrates into the thoughts of others, then there is always the danger that one will learn more from it than was originally intended.

Semjase

27. Therefore, if we, too, would disregard this recommendation, then we ourselves would know how to interpret your very last thought processes and secrets, and you would not always be able to astonish and amaze us over and over again.

// Plejaren Contact Report //

- If it is not that important, Plejaren are usually reluctant to actively penetrate into the thoughts of others because they don't think they have the right to penetrate into the personal secrets of others.

Contact Report / Topic Excerpts

- The Laws and Recommendations taught by Jmmanuel are still valid today, just as they were in his time.

'Billy' Eduard Albert Meier

... In the last days I have given myself so many different thoughts about order, laws and recommendations that have been offered to mankind by ancient prophets.

'Billy' Eduard Albert Meier

I actually came across this through Arahath Athersata, who in the last days spoke extraordinarily much about the iron order of the Creation and its laws and recommendations.

'Billy' Eduard Albert Meier

But what interests me now are order, laws and recommendations concerning the marriage between man and woman – the last laws and recommendations concerning this were spread by Jmmanuel, to my knowledge, at a time which was still quite barbaric and bestial.

'Billy' Eduard Albert Meier

Since then, however, time has changed, even if man has not become more humane, but only more refined in his barbaric bestiality.

'Billy' Eduard Albert Meier

At least that's how I see it from my point of view.

Semjase

13. And since you have made it clear enough that this is indeed the case and that only time has changed, but not man, why should the laws be changed?

Semjase

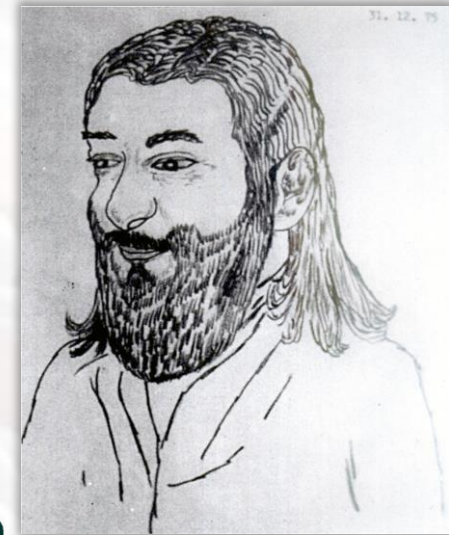

14. This may only then be the case when the human being on the Earth has really become human and lives according to spiritual laws.

'Billy' Eduard Albert Meier

Then do you think that the laws of Jmmanuel concerning marriage and sexual intercourse are still valid today just as they were in his day?

Semjase

15. Sure, because these laws are valid throughout the universe.

Jmmanuel, drawn by Semjase on Wednesday, 31st December 1975.

- Semjase informed Billy that the Creational Laws and Recommendations taught by Jmmanuel regarding marriage and sexuality between men and women are still valid today, even though the people of those times were still rather barbaric and bestial.

- The Laws and Recommendations taught by Jmmanuel are still valid today, just as they were in his time.

Semjase

16. If, contrary to better knowledge, a way of life consciously charges a guilt upon itself, then it must also atone for it; this means that the error committed must be corrected again, because this is the way the law of justice wants it.

Semjase

17. If, however, the consciously charged guilt of a form of life is too great to be able to repay it within an appropriate framework in the sense of earthly humanity, then in many cases only the equivalent value of a total elimination stands opposite such a guilt, whereby the form of life in question becomes unworthy and loses its right to exist.

Semjase

18. In the case of certain religions, atonement then means the subsequent rebirth at a later point in time, whose life is then limited to the remaining time of the previously totally eliminated life or this is controlled by a karma.

Semjase

19. But this applies only to life forms of a barbaric and in spiritual matters ignorant nature, for only human law and its handling can they erroneously grasp as apparent justice.

Semjase

20. If not only time changes, but with it also the form of life itself, and if it thereby enters into the state of higher conscious and spiritual development, then the handling and creation of human laws is also changed.

Semjase

21. Instead of total elimination, emasculation and desecration, etc., the handling of the law is uniformly rewritten into the form of a banishment for time or for life, in separate circles.

Semjase

22. This means, in other words, that guilty persons are banished to distant worlds or islands on a gender-uniform basis for time or life, if they are no longer able to reproduce due to the lack of the other sex, but have all means at their disposal for the maintenance of life as well as for conscious conscious and spiritual evolution.

Semjase

23. The terrestrial man of the present time would very well be in a position to apply these laws adapted to modern times if he were not corrupt and ambivalent.

• It is only when the Laws and Recommendations of Creation are observed and practiced that the human being becomes a true human being and lives the life he/she was destined.

• When the Plejaren commit a crime they can be subject to lifelong banishment/exile to remote islands or other worlds. This form of punishment hopefully allows the guilty person time to reflect and learn from their mistake which serves their evolution. This form of punishment is more humane than what is practiced currently on earth.
