

Philosophy of Art and Aesthetic Normativity

The Annual Conference of the Society for German Idealism and Romanticism
University of Cambridge, St. John's College
10-11th May 2024

We welcome all submissions pertaining to these broad categories. We welcome talks that explore the contemporary inheritance of insights from idealism and romanticism as well as talks that fall within the history of philosophy. The conference will take place in person, but talks will also be streamed for attendees who are unable to join in person. Submissions are due by Nov. 15th and will undergo a double-blind review process. Notifications of acceptance will be sent out by January 15th. Abstracts should be submitted to the SGIR at sgircommittee@gmail.com.

Confirmed Speakers Include:

Rachel Zuckert (Northwestern University)
Samantha Matherne (Harvard University)
Paul Guyer (Brown University)
Ulrich Schlösser (University of Tübingen)
Michael Forster (University of Bonn)
Christian Martin (University of Stuttgart)
Alix Cohen (University of Edinburgh)

Conference Organizers:

Angela Breitenbach (University of Cambridge)
Gerad Gentry (University of Mainz)
