

Kopack, John

John Albert Kopack, 55, died Tuesday, April 4, 2000, at his home in Bay Port after suffering from multiple medical problems for several years. He was born June 8, 1944, in Garden City to the late Charles and Claudia (LaCelle) Kopack. On May 7, 1966, he was united in marriage to Helen Bednorek in Garden City. They were married for 17 years. John owned and operated Caseville Floor Covering for 10 years until it closed in 1985. He also operated Mrs. B's Yarn Shop and the Old Fashion Ice Cream Parlor in Caseville. He was past member of the Caseville Chamber of Commerce, Caseville Eagles and started the Caseville Art Show. He enjoyed fishing and hunting for antiques. He was also a very talented artist, painting from abstracts to portraits. Surviving are two daughters, Christina Engleman and her husband, Kevin, of Caseville, and Colleen Kopack of Albuquerque, N.M.; three grand-children, Alexander, Gavin and Elizabeth; his brother, Thomas Kopack of Northville; and his sisters, Claudia Lux and her husband, Eli, of Westland, and Charmaine Coak and her husband, Charles, of Inkster. A funeral mass will be conducted at 11 a.m. Monday, April 10, 2000, at St. Roch Catholic Church in Caseville, with burial in the church cemetery. Visitation will be from 9:30 a.m. until the time of services Monday at the church. Arrangements are being handled by the Champagne Funeral Chapel in Caseville.
