Biography

Zachery David Jock, 31, of Bad Axe, passed away suddenly from a work related accident on August 13, 2019. He was born on August 22, 1987 in Harbor Beach to Grace (Shepherd) Jock and the late Jerome Jock. Zach was a member of the Grindstone Sportsmen's club. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, playing cards and being on his little farm with all of his many animals. Zach was a great uncle to his many nieces and nephews and loved to take them hunting and fishing along with his many cousins whom he adored. He enjoyed spending time with his family and was well liked by everyone that knew him. He would do anything for anyone that needed a helping hand and was a very loyal friend to many. Zach was hard working and was lovingly called Doc Jock.
