"OUR MISSION IS TO...

CELEBRATE GOD'S PRESENCE IN OUR MIDST BY MASS, SACRAMENTS, AND PRAYER; LIVE CHRIST'S LOVE BY SERVING OTHERS, ESPECIALLY THE POOR, NEGLECTED, AND SUFFERING;
GROW IN THE TRUTHS AND VALUES OF OUR CATHOLIC TRADITION, TEACH THEM TO OUR CHILDREN, AND PROCLAIM THEM TO THOSE WHO DO NOT KNOW THEM."

THE CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

The Signs of Bread and Wine

1333 At the heart of the Eucharistic celebration are the bread and wine that, by the words of Christ and the invocation of the Holy Spirit, become Christ's Body and Blood. Faithful to the Lord's command the Church continues to do, in his memory and until his glorious return, what he did on the eve of his Passion: "He took bread. . . ." "He took the cup filled with wine. . . ." The signs of bread and wine become, in a way surpassing understanding, the Body and Blood of Christ; they continue also to signify the goodness of creation. Thus in the Offertory we give thanks to the Creator for bread and wine, fruit of the "work of human hands," but above all as "fruit of the earth" and "of the vine" - gifts of the Creator. The Church sees in the gesture of the king-priest Melchizedek, who "brought out bread and wine," a prefiguring of her own offering.

CATECISMO DE LA IGLESIA CATOLICA

Los signos del pan y del vino

1333 En el corazón de la celebración de la Eucaristía se encuentran el pan y el vino que, por las palabras de Cristo y por la invocación del Espíritu Santo, se convierten en el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo. Fiel a la orden del Señor, la Iglesia continúa haciendo, en memoria de Él, hasta su retorno glorioso, lo que Él hizo la víspera de su pasión: "Tomó pan...", "tomó el cáliz lleno de vino...". Al convertirse misteriosamente en el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo, los signos del pan y del vino siguen significando también la bondad de la creación. Así, en el ofertorio, damos gracias al Creador por el pan y el vino (cf Sal 104,13-15), fruto "del trabajo del hombre", pero antes, "fruto de la tierra" y "de la vid", dones del Creador. La Iglesia ve en el gesto de Melquisedec, rey y sacerdote, que "ofreció pan y vino" (Gn 14,18), una prefiguración de su propia ofrenda (cf Plegaria Eucaristía I o Canon Romano, 95; Misal Romano).

THEOLOGY KETTLE WILL START SOON

The fall line-up is taking shape quickly so be sure to put the "Theology Kettle" on your list of "must" do things.

The Theology Kettle this fall will gather beginning on Sunday, September 8, at 12:30 pm, in the Social Hall.

This year the topic will be, "Isaiah: The 5th Gospel", a thirteen part series.

Please contact Ms. Rita Beebe if you have any questions at (360-385-3700).

Since very early in the history of Christianity, the book of Isaiah has been a central text of our faith, and has been called the "Fifth Gospel". In fact, St. Jerome (c. 342-420) claimed Isaiah "should be called an evangelist rather than a prophet. Isaiah's message of an eternal commitment of God remains as powerful today as ever. Isaiah says, "He is the herald of good news (lit., gospel)". It is the good news that, although God's people rightly deserve judgement, God will come as their king and bring peace and salvation to all who trust in him. This God draws near: "I dwell in the high and holy place, and also with him who is a contrite and lowly spirit, to revive the spirit of the lowly". Repentant sinners do not repel this God; they draw him closer. He doesn't demand that we try to rise up to him, but that we acknowledge that we can't. Isaiah shows that this God comes to us. At the heart of this "gospel" is the coming of a Servant who will accomplish our salvation through his righteous life, guilty death, and victorious resurrection. This is the heart of Isaiah's gospel and ours.

BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT MINISTRY MEETING

The Bereavement Support Ministry will meet on Sunday, August 25, at 12:30 pm, in Rm. 6. All are welcome to attend.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PROGRAMS STARTING IN SEPTEMBER

Summer is flying by and it is time to concentrate once again on the important programs that serve to educate our youth and adults in the practice of our faith. These are some of the most important programs of the Parish and require your participation now to assure that all will be in readiness come September.

First, let us take this opportunity to introduce Liz Sabo as our new Coordinator of Parish Religious Education. As a parent of four she is well aware of the need for conscientious religious training and the need to make these programs accessible and available to all. She will be assisted by Rita Beebe. By way of a good example her youngest daughter Vanessa (age 3 months) will be assisting her as well and we look forward to the many new insights she will bring to the programs.

Right of Christian Initiation (RCIA)

For those interested in becoming Catholic/receiving the Sacraments, register for RCIA classes which will begin in September. Questions? Contact Liz Sabo at Lsabo@stmaryss.com or through the Parish Office at 360-385-3700.

Religious Education for Youth and Children

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE CARE OF CREATION -- SEPTEMBER 1

Pope Francis established the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation in 2015. The Holy Father encourages us to join him to pray and "reaffirm our personal vocation to be stewards of creation, to thank God for the wonderful handiwork which he has entrusted to our care and implore his help in the protection of it."
