

Larry Lyn Pangborn

Larry Lyn Pangborn, 51, of Grand Rapids, formerly of Bad Axe, passed away Tuesday, May 13, 2014, from injuries sustained in an automobile accident.

He was born Nov. 9, 1962, in Bad Axe, son of Lyn and Sharon (Martin) Pangborn.

Larry was a member of the Bad Axe High School Class of 1981, and received his bachelor's degree in accounting from Central Michigan University. He was an avid sports fan, he grew up playing in Little League, and lettered in football, basketball and baseball at Bad Axe High School. After working in the finance field, Larry started Pangborn Properties, moving into the rental and construction business. He most recently resided in Grand Rapids to be closer to family and to continue in the construction trade.

Larry is survived by his parents, Lyn and Sharon Pangborn of Bad Axe; two brothers, Terry (Lori) Pangborn of Grand Rapids and Garry (Elizabeth) Pangborn of Pleasant View, Tennessee; sister, Teena (Rick) Kroes of Cedar Springs; four nephews, Jordan, Zachary, Trevor and Dylan; three nieces, Morgan, Allison and Chloe; two aunts, Edith (Clark) Edwards of Bad Axe and Mereta Terjesen of Jacksonville, Florida; two uncles, Wayne Pangborn of Durham, North Carolina, and Martin (Edwina) Ramseyer of Mustang, Oklahoma; and great-uncle, Calvin (Marilyn) Chamberlain of Lansing.

Services will be conducted at 11 a.m. Monday at the Bad Axe First Presbyterian Church. Burial will be in Colfax Cemetery.

Visitors may call from 1 to 7 p.m. Sunday at the Kaufman Funeral Home in Bad Axe, or from 10 a.m. until the time of service Monday at the church.

Memorials may be offered to the Bad Axe First Presbyterian Church or the Bad Axe High School Athletic Department.
