 Gospel: Lk 13: 22-30

Making Our Way to Jerusalem

As we make our way on this spiritual journey, we too must inevitably ask the question posed in today's gospel: "Lord, will we be among those who are saved? Are we among those who will make this journey successfully?" And Jesus answers our question with words that dispel any complacency that we may have been entertaining: "Strive to enter through the narrow gate." To love and to live as He did will not be easy.

The Gospel message echoes down the centuries to console those who have come to faith in Jesus. There are always moments when the dream fades and hopes are dimmed. Evil, suffering and death continue to burst the dreams of believers, and many are tempted to walk away from the Lord and from his community of faith. But the Risen Savior continues to walk with us, to lead us back to the Scriptures for the answers, and to reveal Himself again to us in the breaking of the Bread of the Eucharist.

If we begin now to know and serve the Lord in the least of his brothers and sisters, to love Him in the poor, the outcast, the lonely, the sinner, then we will not be like those who "stand outside" and "knock at the door" when once the master of the house "has arisen and locked the door." We will need not fear to hear him say: "I do not know where you are from." (Lk 13:25.)

Everything we do - prayer, worship, sacramental life, learning, teaching, serving, healing, comforting, forgiving - all must be done in the name and power of Jesus. We must affirm by word and work that He is Lord, and that salvation, peace and justice can come only through the power of His name.

But all this is useless - unless we are constantly renewing, improving, and growing in our personal and communal faith, so that people see in us, in what we say and do, a continuation of the presence and power of Jesus.
