

Right Where I Am

Rachael Martin 6,12,2019

Everywhere we go, Holy Spirit goes with us – that means He is with us in every conversation, when we go to the store, when we sleep, when we are driving, when we are working, when we need Him, He is already at work around us. He is in the little things and in the big things and what we do and say matter to Him.

I was reminded that throughout the Old Testament, people would leave memorial stones to remind them of places where God has intervened in their lives. I was also reminded that as we move in the love of Jesus, that He has placed His love letter, His reminders of how to live on the tablets of our hearts. (2 Corinthians 3:3)

The Lord has been showing me the gifts He has placed in our family and He is in the process of showing us how to walk in them in a new season with different people, in a different place. It has been challenging, yet oddly I find myself with anticipation for how we will see Him lead each of us. The Lord will make a way and it's up to us to search it out, it's up to us to search for Him.

As He is reminding me, I wanted to remind our readers the scriptures that He is faithful to light our paths and He is faithful to give us words to speak and He is faithful to make a way. His love for us is just that deep. I was at a birthday party and a friend of mine was saying that the door shut on one of the avenues she was looking into for medical help for her daughter and instantly I told her God is faithful, He will provide another avenue. Within minutes she received communication from a doctor who was willing to just up and give her his findings on the research he had for what her daughter is walking through.

Read with me and thank God for being there for you, not just in the past, but in all of your tomorrows. ♥
