

Book sale postponed

The Randolph County Animal Shelter Spring Book Sale has been delayed until Saturday, June 6, and Saturday, June 13. The Woodmen of America will still matching funds up $2,500.

The volunteers have been working many hours so that the books in the mystery room and romance room are all alphabetized by author and title. Come out and have fun in June.