Rule of Law & Road to Peace Journey to Ireland

Program Highlights

- ✓ The key focus of this program is to learn about the Rule of Law in Ireland and specifically the "Troubles" in Northern Ireland lasting from the 1960-1998. Hear from lawyers & community members about the road to peace and the conflict resolution process in both the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland.

Professional Connections & Peer Engagement

- ✓ Meaningful interaction and collaboration between program participants and professionals in Ireland will include meetings with high level officials, university faculty and those whose families were personally involved in the conflicts.
- ✓ Meet with faculty and possibly students at local universities like Queens University School of Law in Belfast and Trinity College Law School in Dublin.

Cultural Immersion & Exploration

- ✓ Explore the Epic Museum of Irish Emigration to explore the history of the Irish diaspora and emigration to other countries.
- ✓ Visits Pearse Lyons Distillery for a private whiskey tasting.
- ✓ Immerse yourself in daily life and learn about Ireland's unique culture and history with hands on experiences including a breadmaking class in a family farmhouse.
- ✓ Meet former political prisoners from both sides of the conflict as you explore Shankill Road
- ✓ Guest program – guests will enjoy privately guided cultural activities while professional members are in scheduled meetings
- ✓ Optional post-program extension to Edinburgh, Scotland.

Program Leader: Richard Pena, Law Office of Richard Pena P.C.

Richard is a veteran delegation leader, having led 19 international legal delegations. He has received the Eisenhower Achievement Award for being an outstanding legal delegation leader and is a national leader in the legal field. He has served as the President of the State Bar of Texas, the American Bar Foundation, and the Austin Bar Association. He is a former Chair of the Texas Bar Foundation and the Fellows of the American Bar Foundation. Richard has received three Presidential Citations from the State Bar of Texas for his meritorious service to the profession. His rewards include the Distinguished Lawyer Award presented by the Austin Bar Association; Difference Maker Award by the ABA General Practice, Solo and Small Firm Division; Spirit of Excellence Award in the ABA Commission on Racial and Ethnic Diversity in the Profession. The Texas Bar Journal recognized him as a legal "trailblazer" in its February 2014 issue. Richard has the highest rating in the legal profession based on his AV Preeminent rating by Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory. He is a Vietnam Veteran and is co-author of the book Last Plane Out of Vietnam.
