

OLIN J. SCHEMBER

Olin J. Schember, 59, Oliver Township farmer, died unexpectedly Sunday at Huron Memorial Hospital, near Bad Axe, after an apparent heart attack.

He was born Feb. 7, 1922, in Elkton, son of Lydia Schember and the late Alfred Schember.

Olin Schember and Miss Suzanne Herman were married Sept. 2, 1950, in Elkton.

He farmed in Oliver Township all of his life and was a member of the Elkton Missionary Church, the Michigan Milk Producers Association and an Army veteran of World War II.

Surviving are his wife; three sons, John Schember and William Schember, both of Bad Axe, and Tim Schember, Copper Cove, Tex.; his mother, Lydia Schember, Oliver Township; 10 grandchildren; eight brothers, Walter Schember, Robert Schember, and Edward Schember, all of Elkton, Clarence Schember, Lapeer, Kenneth Schember, Royal Oak, Earl Schember, Ubyly, Gerald Schember, Goodells, and Wayne Schember, Pigeon; and two sisters, Mrs. Evelyn Haley, Owendale, and Mrs. Glen (Alene) McCracken, Bad Axe.

Services will be 11 a.m. Wednesday at the Elkton Missionary Church. The Rev. Harold Young, pastor, will officiate. Burial will follow in the Caseville Cemetery.

Friends may call Monday at the Champagne Funeral Home, Elkton, where a military memorial service will be conducted 7:30 p.m. Tuesday by members of the Caseville American Legion, Jean Post No. 543.