

The Archdiocese has prepared an opportunity on the Archdiocese of Anchorage website for everyone to submit their comments, questions and/or suggestions relating to the abuse reports in the Catholic Church and the Church's response about abuse of vulnerable persons.

The Catholic Church values the dignity of its members. The horrors of child abuse continue to haunt the Church and its victims. In order to deal with this crisis in a responsible, accountable, and transparent manner, the Archbishop is working to address the concerns of victims, parishioners, and the broader community.

The Archdiocese of Anchorage values everyone's thoughts regarding the abuse against the vulnerable of our Church and the Church's response. We want to make available an opportunity for everyone to express their thoughts.

Please submit any questions or comments and offer recommendations by using the online form, available on the Archdiocese website.

<https://www.archdioceseofanchorage.org/>

All submissions can be anonymous if preferred. When possible, answers to questions submitted will be posted publicly through the Archdiocese of Anchorage website and/or the Catholic Anchor.

Comments and suggestions will be shared with Archbishop Etienne and his staff and at his discretion, may be published.

The identity of those submitting concerns, questions or comments and recommendations will not be made public.

Please note that it is the policy of the Archdiocese of Anchorage to report all allegations of abuse or endangerment of a minor or vulnerable adult or child pornography.
