Weather	Chilly - Mid 40's & Drizzle

It was cloudy, Mid 40's, windy and drizzling, but it didn't bother Ceglia Jr. He shoots a Net 66 for a 4 shot victory over Jeffries and Emma. There were 5 Par 3's and only 2 Greensies won that Pot. A couple of them played long and into the wind. A couple of guys were using this as a warm-up (?) for Scotland. The good news is Bruce Rapp finished all 18 Holes!

Another dreary NJ day - think it is 8 in a row. Mike Jeffries stands ready to buy until Min the Magnificent comes in with a 1 stroke victory that took over 15 minutes to figure out in the bar. Mike still offers as he knows he is the big $ winner. Four singles matches are in the books with Shawn Smith, Mike Jeffries, Bob Babetski, and Bob Nowark advancing.

9 DGA played in the Paul Piccolli Memorial Tournament at Farmstead. Min amazed all of us by shooting better than his Age (Gross 82, Net 64) to win by 2 shots...including a blistering Net 28 on the Lakeview nine. One of the competitions in the tournament was Pink Ball...and the threesome of Larry Thiry, Dan Price and John Rutigliano won it by handing in their Pink Ball with a score of Gross 97...and they won $95 a man! A dollar per shot! And on the longest drive hole (#8 Clubview), Dave Perry pulled out an iron...and Ed Korleski said "Wait, let me call Joe Musella"...Dave went back to the cart, pulled out the driver and proceeded to lose his ball! So much for sticking to your strategy!
