Biography

Marion M. Weltin, 84, of Cass City, died following a lengthy illness Tuesday, October 27, 2020 in Courtney Manor Skilled Nursing and Rehab Community of Bad Axe. She was born April 8, 1936 in Pigeon to John and Eva (Follman) Meininger. Marion graduated from Cass City High School in 1954, moved to Ubly in 1957 and worked on the family farm. She quickly developed a reputation as a hard worker.

Marion was a cook for the Charmont in Cass City and was later employed by General Cable and Sebewaing Industries. Through it all, she always maintained her duties as a homemaker. Marion enjoyed baking and was a great cook. Family and friends looked forward to her Christmas cookies and nut roll. Marion was a devout member of both St. Agatha and St. Pancratius Catholic Churches. Quilting was one of her favorite hobbies and she made many quilts as gifts. Marion always had a good time trying her luck in the casino with her friends. She loved listening to polkas.
