5. Notice to Applicant:

The authority of the Architectural Review Committee ("ARC") is derived from Article 7.1 of the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions, and Restrictions of Oakmont Estates (the "Declaration"), which states: "No improvement may be erected, placed or constructed, painted, altered, modified, or remodeled or any Lot Without the prior written approval of the Architectural Review Committee."

Applicant acknowledges that all improvements must be constructed in accordance with the Design Guidelines set forth in the Declaration in addition to any guidelines or rules adopted by the Association or ARC from time to time. In addition, all improvements must be constructed in accordance with the laws, rules, regulations, and building codes of governmental authorities having jurisdiction. Approval of this application does not constitute approval by any governmental authority.

Approval of this application does not give Applicant the right to enter upon the property of any other owner or the common area in order to perform the construction contemplated by this application.

The Applicant is solely responsible for ensuring that proposed improvements do not encroach upon a public utility easement located on the Property. Applicant hereby releases the Association, ARC, and each of its Directors, Officers, committee members, and agents from and against any liability caused or occasioned by the location of such improvements. Applicant acknowledges that in the event an improvement encroaches upon a public utility easement located on the Property and a public utility provider requires access to such easement, Applicant may be required to remove such improvements to the extent they encroach upon or interfere with use of the public utility easement.

A copy of the Declaration has been posted on the community web page at www.hawkizemgmt.com/oakmont-estates-of-lubbock.html. If you do not have access to the internet, you may order a copy from the Texas Hawkize Property Management. You will be charged a fee for copies.
