It Is a Matter of Priorities

Are We Making Time to Fulfill the Great Commission?

(photo courtesy Microsoft Publisher) Unsaved people may have no interest in the gospel and rather pursue wealth in business and other worldly pleasures. Likewise, Saved people who are successful may not be making time for soul winning.

When I got out of college, my goal was to get a good professional job and make a lot of money. That is generally what very student seeks, and so do those who do not get to college. After I got saved I started going to a Bible-believing church that made it simple as to what God expected from me. And I started soul winning. That was about 25 years ago. Today I am still soul winning.

Some people never get saved, but for those who do it can be quite a discipline to serve God in soul winning considering the time management involved. Young people are looking for the best job they can get, and spending time working and dealing with the house, but are they soul winning? Did the young people of today for get about the one most important thing you can do for God?

No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. (Matthew 6:24). It is one thing to be in search of the best job we can get, it is another thing to forget about God searching for the best job we can get. God has to be a priority in our lives. God wants us to make time for him first, and let the rest of our lives fall in places thereafter. Do we make time to pray every day? Do we make time to read the Bible everyday? Is our job getting in the way of church? And most importantly do we find the time to go soul winning? Or has our career taken all of that time away?

The Bible says But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel (1 Timothy 5:8). But it also says Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature (Mark 16:15). Which one of these verses takes the priority, or can we expect one to? There has to be a balance of our time in order to meet these two commandments.

Time with God and soul winning has to be scheduled, like we schedule meetings for work. That way you are sure to make it a priority in your life. So schedule time to go soul winning because it is the one most important thing you will ever do for God.
