

Education vs. Propaganda

Education stimulates;
propaganda stifles.
Education liberates;
propaganda enslaves.
Education deliberates;
propaganda demands.

Education draws you
out;
propaganda takes you
in.

Education seeks the
true;
propaganda shows the official.

Education thrives on
questions;
propaganda has the answers.

Education wants you
to discern;
propaganda brooks
no criticism.

Education opens
your mind;
propaganda keeps
it closed.

Education looks at
all sides;
propaganda has only
one point of view.

Education thrives on
analysis;
propaganda leads to
paralysis.

If, therefore, your goal
is control,
spread propaganda.
If, however, you are
developing potential,
promote education.

© Msgr. Walter Niebrzydowski

July 25, 1985

Fr-Walter@nyc.rr.com

www.fatherwaltersparish.org

