Course Warrenbrook - Blues (70.2 /128)
Weather Low 80's Sunny and Breezy

Our first fifth qualifier was a success. The weather at Warrenbrook was perfect. Rich Fitzgerald made a rare request for an early tee time. Judging on the results I think he should play early more often. It certainly wasn't looking good at the turn since his net 34 was 5 stokes off Mansour Rismanchi's Net 29. Rich proceeded to shoot Net 28 on the back and finish one stroke ahead of Mansour with a Net 62. This will be the second year in a row that Rich has won the Warrenbrook qualifier and this will be his 6th time in World Series. More from the Commissioner later.

We also had our annual visit from Ron Ceglia Sr. and once again he is filling his pockets with DGA money. Ron shoots Net 70 and wins Birdie, Greenie, Gross and Net Par 3 pots. When it was mentioned that there wasn't a Sandie Pot winner, Ron did say, "I had a Sandie but I missed the putt" so there was no Sandie Pot winner. But John Rutigliano is not going to complain because anyone who comes to his house and does the cooking can win any pot he wants. Thanks Ron/Roomie.

In Match play it was Korleski and Cavallo over the bad backs of Petronchak and Smith +9.

We did have a BBQ at John Rutigliano's house after the round. It was a good time and a pleasant afternoon. Special thanks to Ron Ceglia for doing all the cooking. It was a big help.
