MINDFULNESS

Importance
Focus

with

Greg Dwyer

(on Zoom)

Tuesday, February 15th at 6:30pm

If you want more out of life and would like to focus on making it happen, this interactive workshop is for you. Greg Dwyer is a motivational speaker and former illusionist. He worked backstage for Doug Henning's The Magic Show and was seen by over six million people on CBS with The Late Show with David Letterman. Greg will show you how to create real magic in your life and get more of what you desire. He is an inspiring speaker and will share valuable nuggets of wisdom for you to ponder. More importantly, you'll leave the program with an action plan to implement straightaway!

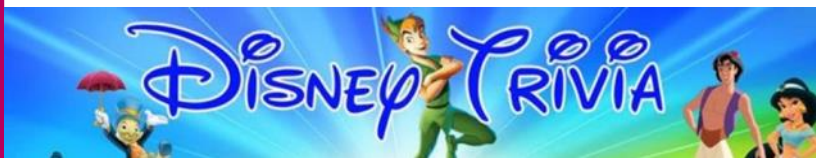

Greg Dwyer will be joining us for a live session on Zoom from CT; he will not be in-person at the Library.

Register to attend virtually on Zoom or join the Zoom session in-person at the Library:

In the Great Ponds Gallery

Exhibit runs until February 24th

“Lakes and Couches” by Joseph Fontinha

During the month of February the Great Ponds Gallery will feature “Lakes and Couches”, an exhibit of oils by Lakeville resident Joseph Fontinha, a high school teacher with a passion for painting. His work offers a slow and forensic account of his painting experience. He sees a painting as a collection of many moments; he preserves only those that he won't negotiate. He describes this exhibit as “Some things look like lakes, and some look like couches.”
