

ORDINANCE NUMBER 617

AN ORDINANCE PERMITTING THE KEEPING OF CHICKENS WITHIN THE CORPORATE LIMITS OF THE CITY OF WESTMORELAND, AND REVOKING AND REPEALING ORDINANCE #586 AND REPEALING ALL ORDINANCES IN CONFLICT HERWITH.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE GOVERNING BODY OF THE CITY OF WESTMORELAND, KANSAS.

Section 1. Except where prohibited by subdivision covenants, conditions and restrictions, it shall be lawful to keep, permit or allow domesticated chickens within the corporate limits of the City of Westmoreland under the following terms and conditions.

- (a) No chickens or chicks shall be permitted upon properties other than single family detached residential lots or tracts, and a total of not more than eight (8) hens or chicks, shall be allowed for each single-family dwelling.
- (b) No roosters or male chicks shall be allowed.
- (c) There shall be no outdoor slaughter of chickens.
- (d) All chickens or chicks must be kept at all times in a secure henhouse or chicken pen. Henhouses or chicken pens shall be designated and constructed so as to provide safe and healthy living conditions for the chickens or chicks while minimizing adverse impacts to City residents. All henhouses or chicken pens shall be enclosed on all sides and have a roof and doors. All henhouses or chicken pens access doors must be able to be shut and locked. Windows and vents must be covered with predator-proof in bird-proof wire containing less than one-inch openings. Enclosures shall be constructed in accordance with City policies maintained by the zoning enforcement officer.
- (e) Enclosures shall not be located in front or side yard areas as defined by the zoning ordinance(s) of the City of Westmoreland. All henhouses and chicken pens shall be located in the backyard of the residence. "Backyard" For purpose of this ordinance shall mean that area of a lot that is located between the back of the house and the rear property line. All henhouses and chicken pens shall be located at least twenty-five feet (25') from any neighbor's home and at least ten feet (10') from any property line. Chickens or chicks shall be kept in the henhouses or chicken pens at all times, except when being removed for slaughter, or for cleaning of the henhouse or chicken pen, and shall not be permitted to be at large on any lot. A fenced lot or a fenced portion of a lot shall not be deemed a proper or authorized henhouse or chicken pen. All henhouses and chicken pens shall be kept clean, dry, odor free and in a sanitary condition at all times. All henhouses and chicken pens shall be constructed and repaired to prevent rats, mice or other rodents from being underneath or within such structures.
- (f) Provision must be made for the storage and removal of chicken manure. All stored manure shall be covered by a fully enclosed structure or contained with a roof or lid over the entire structure or container. All the manure not properly stored and not used for composting or fertilizing on the premises shall be removed.

- (g) All production from chickens raised must be consumed on the premises.
- (h) A permit for the keeping of chickens or chicks must be obtained from the City's Zoning Administrator. The keeping of chickens or chicks after a permit has been revoked shall be a violation of this Ordinance.

Section 2. Any person wishing to keep chickens or chicks within the City of Westmoreland, Kansas, shall file an application to do so with the City Clerk. Such application will then be reviewed by the Zoning Administrator, who will either grant or deny the permit. If a permit is granted, the permit fee shall be as set by resolution by the City Council. In cases where the keeper of the chickens or chicks is not the property owner, the written consent the property owner is required before a permit can be issued. Plans for the chicken henhouse or chicken pen shall be filed with the permit application, together with the proposed location of the same on the property. The proposed location of the henhouse or chicken pen shall be inspected by the Zoning Administrator prior to the issuance of a permit. A permit holder shall comply at all times and shall include notification of the right to appeal such denial or revocation period any appeal of a denial or revocation shall be in writing and shall include notification of the right to appeal such denial or revocation period any appeal of a denial or revocation shall be in writing and shall be filed with the city clerk. Any such appeal shall be heard and determined by the governing body within forty five days (45) from and after the filing of such appeal.

Section 3. Any person, corporation, partnership, or association keeping chickens or chicks in the City of Westmoreland shall permit the Zoning Administrator to inspect the facilities for the keeping of such chickens or chicks at any time, with or without notice, and denial of access by the zoning administrator shall be grounds for the revocation of a permit issued under the provisions of this Ordinance.

Section 4. If a Zoning Administrator determines that a permit holder has violated or is violating any of the provisions of this ordinance, the Zoning Administrator may revoke the permit for the keeping of chickens or chicks.

Section 5. Any person, corporation, partnership, or association who has been denied a permit or had a permit revoked, shall be served as a notice of such denial or revocation. The notice shall be served on the owner or agent of the owner of the property at issue by personal service or by restricted mail. The notice shall state the conditions which is/are in violation of the provisions of this Ordinance, and shall inform the person, corporation, partnership, or association that:

- (a) He, she, or they have ten (10) days from the date of the serving of the Notice to appeal the denial of a permit or the revocation of a permit and request a hearing before the Governing Body.
- (b) Failure to remove the chickens or chicks from the property or to appeal and request a hearing before the Governing Body within the time set out above may result in prosecution as provided by this Ordinance.

Section 6. Should the person, corporation, partnership, or association failed to comply with the notice set out in Section 5 above or request a hearing, or if any person shall violate the provisions of this ordinance, the zoning administrator or the city attorney may file a complaint in the Municipal Court of the city against such person, corporation, partnership, or association and upon conviction of any violation of the provisions of this Ordinance, such person, corporation, partnership, or association may be fined in an amount not to exceed five-hundred dollars ($500.00) or be imprisoned for not more than thirty (30) days, or be both fined and imprisoned. Each day during or on which a violation occurs or continue after notice has been served shall constitute an additional or separate offense.

Section 7. All parts of Ordinance in conflict with the provisions of this Ordinance are hereby repealed.

Section 8. This ordinance shall take effect and be in full form and after its passage in publication in the official city newspaper.

Passed and adopted by the City of Westmoreland, Kansas, this 13th day of November, 2025.

Mayor

City Clerk

Published in The Times November 27, 2025.