

Week 2
Due 1-31-19

PRACTICE EXERCISE

"I"

Directions: Circle the correct form of the word.

1. He kept the toddler (incite, insight, in sight) as he jogged around the park.
2. The beach was (infected, infested) with over a million people over the long, hot weekend.
3. Oil is (insoluble, insolvable, insolvent) in water.
4. The student was arrested because of his efforts to (incite, insight) the dissidents to riot.
5. She (invade, inveighed) against her opponent because of his views on abortion as well as several other issues.
6. The visitors were seated on both sides of the (aisle, isle).
7. The employee made (idle, idol, idyll) threats against the manager.
8. What she (implied, inferred) from his speech was totally erroneous.
9. Being (insoluble, insolvable, insolvent), the manager submitted to bankruptcy proceedings.
10. The group of recent captives was (entered, interned, interred) in a camp near the headquarters.
11. The (emigrants, immigrants) to the country were seeking aid.
12. The (ingenious, ingenuous) young actress did not have enough experience to carry the role.
13. The young man was (indicted, indited) for murder.
14. The athlete was (ineligible, illegible) because of the age requirement.
15. Their trucking company for (interstate, intrastate) commerce covered the 11 western states.
16. The police commissioner (inveighed, invade) against the cut in funds to fight drugs.
17. After long hours of contemplation, he decided not to send the endearing (indictment, inditement) he had written to her.
18. It was thought that he had died (interstate, intrastate, intestate), but his will was later found.
19. If you wish your taping to be (intelligent, intelligible), you will have to speak slowly and distinctly.

PROOFREADING EXERCISE

Week 2
Due 1-31-19

Directions: Make changes in the words where necessary. Some sentences are correct

1. Counsel objected to the question as being incompetent and irrelavant.
2. The neighborhood seemed to be infected with drug dealers and other types of criminals.
3. The internment will be held on Thursday immediately following the services at the chapel.
4. Even the most competent of sleuths would find this murder insoluble.
5. Many of the problems result from the fact that the youths are idol for the whole summer.
6. He invade against the ills of society.
7. Many people have immigrated from Central America because of the continuing civil war there.
8. It was just idle curiosity.
9. After trying for several minutes, the teacher gave up as the student's handwriting was illegible.
10. I felt that his plan to reorganize the organization was ingenious and would result in great progress.
11. California has exerted a large measure of interstate control over its agricultural industry.
12. Her indictment of his actions seemed harsh to all of the people involved in the incident.
13. The surgery was performed under less than idyll circumstances.
14. It is impossible to discern what his opinion really is from the inferences in the speech he gave on Friday.
15. It is well recognized that the number of people who are indigenou is growing.
16. The internment of the Japanese during the war was an atrocity.
17. His impotence was intolerable and offensive to everyone with whom he came into contact.
18. Her voice on that tape was so soft that the words were unintelligent.
19. I inferred from what was said that he is not intending to finish this project.