

Hand of God

"For My hand made all these things, Thus all these things came into being," declares the LORD "But to this one I will look, To him who is humble and contrite of spirit, and who trembles at My word"
(Isaiah 66:2).

Hands in general are symbols of power and strength. The hand of God is referenced 186 times in the Bible.

The Hand of God is the instrument of power.

The Hand of the God being upon someone can denote divine favor or punishment.

The Hand of God in Scripture can be raised in an oath (Ezekiel 20:5), for prophetic experiences (1 Kings 18:46) or for judgment and punishment (1 Samuel 5:9).

The Hand of God is not only referenced in the Old Testament.

The Hand of God in the New Testament is seen for good (Luke 1:66), for judgment (Acts 13:11) and discipline (1 Peter 5:6).

The Hands of Jesus represent the Hands of God. Jesus laid his hands upon the children and blessed them (Mark 10:16).

Jesus raised his hands to bless his disciples as He ascended into heaven (Luke 24:50).

Jesus healed the sick by laying on hands (Mark 8:25). Jesus cast out demons with the "The Finger of God" (Luke 1:20).

Jesus still lays hands on people he loves and imparts courage (Revelation 1:17).

His hand wrote your name in the book of life (Revelation 3).

God's invisible and intangible hand is on you. Whatever happens today, tomorrow or in your future, He is leading, guiding, encouraging, protecting, strengthening and giving you courage.

Have a BLESSED DAY

Rev. Dr. Gina Cobb
August 28, 2019