

Invasive Species

The Natural Resources Department works to identify, inventory, monitor, and manage invasive species on the Reservation. Each invasive species is unique and therefore requires different management techniques to combat. Management techniques currently utilized by the Department for invasive plants includes chemical eradication, mechanical removal, cutting, and competitive native plantings. To learn more about invasive plants please visit the State of Nevada Department of Agriculture website.